

BEAR BASIN TRAILS

Difficulty Level: Moderate, gradual climbing, contouring moderate slopes, some technical trails. Trail color indicates difficulty.

Directions: Drive west from McCall on Hwy 55 for 5 miles. Turn right on North Club Hill Blvd and drive .5 mi to the trailhead yurt. Alternate trailhead at West Face snowmobile parking lot on Hwy 55.

Length: Varies

Vertical Gain: Varies— 500' maximum

Open Uses: Hiking, running and MTB only on singletrack. Jeep roads are open to horseback riding and motorized traffic

Description: Newly built bike-specific singletrack combined with existing 4wd roads to create a trail system. The trails include technical features such as jumps and rock outcrops with alternate ride-arounds.

New trails are being added often, so look for updated maps.

MAP REVISED SEPTEMBER 1, 2010

www.idahorides.org
for current CIMBA calendar of events
Tuesday night group rides and trailwork days

CIMBA and its contributors are in no way responsible for personal injury, damage to property or violation of the law in connection with the use of its maps. CIMBA has exerted its best efforts in the collection, compilation and interpretation of all data presented on this map and shall not be liable for damages arising from information presented on this map. Due to revision of National Forest, National Parks, Bureau of Land Management, State, County and City policies, trails shown as open to mountain biking, hiking, 4wd, and OHV may change at any time. Please check with the proper officials for current trail information. No part of this map may be reproduced in any shape or form.

C September 2010 by Central Idaho Mtn Bike Association.

